

Loren Noyman

Loren Noyman, is an Israel based singer-songwriter. One could describe her as being an old soul dreaming larger than life and continually shedding her skin to create anew. Most importantly her music, writing and concepts are drawn from and imbued with her unique sense of beauty which touches upon elation and flirts with the ineffable. Her unique tones are drawn from an ongoing fascination with country, folk and voices of a lost age, the 60s and 70s, but in essence all of time. She is particularly enamored by her close band of heroes such as Leonard Cohen, James Taylor, Joni Mitchell and many more.

In the last two years Loren released her debut EP, "Pieces" alongside Israeli producer Tomer Yeshayahu. She created a new musical world in which the old meets the new in an exciting and emotional harmony. "Pieces" ' speaks of a break up from a profound, beautiful, and painful relationship full of love.

The EP was greatly acclaimed and warmly regarded by a number of leading radio stations and listeners in Israel. For the past two years Loren had embarked on a concert tour alongside her band in diverse locations around the country and cooperated with a number of leading artist in Israel and abroad {Tomer Yeshayahu, Gil Bar Hadas, Kama Vardi, Dan Zeitun, Benjamin Brothers, Rayland Baxter, Aaron Embry and many more..}

As of late she has released a new single by the name of "The Wind", a first taste from her second album which she is working on with great verve these days alongside Tomer Yeshayahu. The album is bound to be released in this fall. Loren's unique and gentle voice guides us through her beautiful inner galaxy, explores and touches every single piece of her soul. Her music is a personal, romantic and nostalgic creation.

Listen to "Pieces" on all major streaming platforms

Facebook || Instagram || YouTube
lorenoyman@gmail.com